

Carl E. Peterson departed Saturday for Red Lake Falls, Minn. He went to Pekin last Friday to see the people there with regard to putting in a paper at that point but for some reason the deal did not materialize, and he returned here Saturday morning, departing on the afternoon train. By coming here one week and leaving the next he succeeded in getting his name in the paper in two consecutive issues, so he must have been happy when he started back.