

ing.

B. C. Phipps was down from Mose Monday evening. Bert tells us he is still seeding flax and intends to keep on until his seed runs out, and further states that if he gets 15 bushels to the acre and can sell it at $2.00 per bushel, he wants us fellows in Binford to tip our hats to him. The Times scribe will keep his tipped if he brings down a few bushels now and then

C. W. Stewart a member of the