

PUMPKIN RIDGE BREEZES

Breezy Notes by Our Special Corrospendent.

Fine weather we are having at present, but no telling just how long it will last.

Born—to Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Iverson. Jan. 17th, a girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Iverson returned from an extended visit with friends and relatives in Minnesota.

Miss Gertrude Klein returned last week from the western part of the state where she has been visiting with her brothers folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Knapp are the proud parents of a 7 pound boy. Little Claud Knapp was born to them Jan. 16th. Boyd says, he is a genuine democrat.

Cleaning seed wheat seems to be the order of the day nowadays.

Mr. Eligah Pratt of Binford and his most devoted and intended spouse were seen on the streets of Pumpkin Ridge a few days last week.

Mrs. Frank Hartman spent a few days at Courteny last week with her sister who is about to move to Great Falls, Mont., where her parents live.

The Mayor of Pumpkin Ridge is harmonious with Governor Burk's ideas and hopes to see governor win out, and further says, "if the governor needs any helpe, just call on him. The mayor says he is not much mentally, but he is right there physicially.

Mrs. Amanda Russel has gone to Fargo again where she has undergone one operation and must have two more before she can return home. Mrs. Russel had one operation last fall for appendicitis and has been growing worse ever since. We hope this time she will meet with better success.

Mr. Ole Thornson has gone to visit with some of his old time friends at Aneta.