

Word has been received from Sanborn that Mrs. Peter Reid is very low with that dreadful disease, consumption. A few months ago she was taken to the mountains out west in the hope of restoring her to health but even that didn't seem to do any good—in fact she grew worse. She was taken back to Sanborn where her life is slowly ebbing away.