

Torger Rogne returned Monday from Brooks, Dunn county, near which place he filed on a quarter of land. The land lies near that of his brother, Chris. Torger is enthusiastic over his selection and really believes he has a little gold mine in store. His quarter is about two miles from Brooks and seven miles from Manning, the county seat. Chris is one of the rural mail carriers out of Manning.