

Mrs. Amanda Russel has gone to Fargo again where she has undergone one operation and must have two more before she can return home. Mrs. Russel had one operation last fall for appendicitis and has been growing worse ever since. We hope this time she will meet with better success.