

During the storm last Saturday evening a box car that was standing on the siding next to the farmers' elevator was caught in the terrific wind and shoved over both switches onto the main track, and kept agoing. Section Foreman Sam Standahl noticed that the car was gone next morning and gathering a few friends around town started on their "wild car" chase. A trip to Jessie was necessary to locate it—standing about ten feet on the other side of the depot.