

A. M. Swenson, who has been confined to his house for the past three weeks, suffering with catarrhal jaundice and bronchitis, is improving gradually.

Mrs. Kittelson arrived here last