

Theo. and Ade Thompson have purchased a Ford runabout automobile and for a few days teamsters will be on the safe side if they will give the boys the larger share of the road until they have become expert enough to dodge the telephone poles, etc., along the road.—Cooperstown Courier.

With our street 100 feet wide, Theo. was seen here last week making a turn without hitting a telephone pole or side walk, which we did think was doing well.