

...ing on this branch.

Barnard Vogen is suffering from a very bad attack of rheumatism and is compelled to remain inside all the time. We are very sorry to see Barney crippled up in this manner, for he is a hard working man and is young and his friends like to see him about the streets attending to business. We hope the present attack will be of short duration and that Barney will be out as soon as the weather warms up.

A certain