

Barnard Vogen departed yesterday for Hunter's Hot Springs Mont., where he goes to take treatment for a bad case of rheumatism. We hope that he will find permanent relief and will come back in better shape than he has been during the past few months. He was accompanied by Thos. Robertson, who will also take treatment.