

The Times is in receipt of a letter from that prince of good fellows, R. B. Vogen, located at Dundurn, Sask. Canada, in which he states he is getting along fine and likes the country first rate. As to the weather, he says he can see no noticeable change, except a little in favor of that country—but that's natural for Ray. He went to Minnesota shortly after New Years to bring the family up.