

Miss Mungen's resignation.

Agent West of the N. P. has plowed up the right-away east of the depot as far as Main street and has set in several rows of trees and flower beds. There is a great deal of satisfaction for Mr. West to have something to divide his attention, and with his duties in the depot, his chickens and the park he will be a busy man.