

condition for hauling.

Miss Laura J. Betts, teacher in the intermediate department of the Binford school, was summoned to her home at Litchfield, Minnesota, last Friday, by the serious illness of her father. Later reports which have reached here bring the news of the death of her father, which occurred on Sunday afternoon. The Times joins with all in extending condolences to Miss Betts in her bereavement.

Her body was taken to Grand