

Warren French, who lives on the Frank Davis farm, three miles northwest of town, died last night of Brights disease, after a confinement to his bed of a week's duration. Mr. French was 45 years of age. He is survived by his wife and five children.

... one belonging to