

Mrs. L. Jacobs received a message this week of the death of her father, at Minneapolis, on Monday. He was 73 years of age. He was a member of the First Minnesota, and survivor of the famous charge at Gettysburg in the civil war. He had been in ill health for some time past and a sudden attack of heart failure is believed to have caused death.

Miss Bertha Watson, the eleven year