

The remains of Mrs. Harry L. Johnston arrived here last Saturday and was taken from the train direct to the Norwegian Lutheran church, where the services were conducted at three o'clock, by Rev. J. M. Jenson. A large concourse of loving friends were present to pay their last, and sad respects to the departed. Alma, as we knew her, commanded the respect of all sects and classes of people as the attendance at her funeral fully verified. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. The pall bearers were Messrs. John Knapp, Otto Knapp, Theo. Kittelson, A. J. Melgard, M. Norswing and C. E. Peterson.
