

yesterday.

J. D. Peterson stopped here a couple of days last week, on his return from Alexandria, where he was in attendance during the illness and death of a brother. He went from here to Luverne to assume charge of the Ledger.

---