

Mrs. Emelie Rothert

On March 10th occurred the funeral of Mrs. Emelie Rothert, widow of the late Carl Rothert. The deceased was born in Germany Sept. 30, 1850. In 1868 she was married to Mr. Carl Rothert, their union being blessed with eight children, five daughters and three sons. They are Mrs. Hiram Reames of Potlatch, Idaho, Mrs. Frank Sperger, of Retlaw, Alberta, Canada, Mrs. James McCulloch, of Jessie, N. D., Mrs. Robert Pittinger, Binford, N. D., Mrs. Robert Starr, Sutton, N. D., The Messrs. Gustave and William of Binford, and Frederick of Maxbass. The family came to America in 1880, residing at Porter, Ind., for two years, they then removed to this state, settling south of what is now Binford, where they have resided since.

Mr. Carl Rothert passed into the great beyond Sept. 7, 1908. The deceased died early Thursday morning March 5, at Jamestown, cause of death being myocarditis, resulting from asthma. The remains were brought here for burial.

A short service in German was held at the G. L. Rothert home, with an address based on 1 Peter 1, 3-5. The services in Zion church were in English, the text for the funeral sermon being 1 Cor. 15, 54-57, Rev. Paul F. Siegel officiating. Interment was made in Zion's cemetery, south of town.