

pretty well fixed financially.

Henry Skofstad, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Skofstad, died at 10 o'clock a. m., on Monday morning of this week at the home of his sister, Mrs. M. Norswing, in Finley, of Brights' disease. The young man had been out to Montana on his claim and was taken sick and started to come home getting only to Finley where he died. He was a very quiet, unassuming young man, of a genial, happy disposition, and was well liked by all who knew him. His death is a very severe blow to his parents and other members of the family. The remains were taken to his home east of town and on Wednesday of this week the funeral was held at the farm home, interment being made in the Romness cemetery. The Times together with the many friends of the Skofstad family in this city and vicinity deeply sympathize with them in this dark hour of sorrow.

The following account of a serious