

He got busy.

The funeral of Miss Bertha Watne, who died last week, was held last Friday from the Lutheran Free church, Rev. O. Swenson, conducting the services. A large number of loving friends were present to pay their last respects to the deceased.

The state law requires that a person