

can communicate.

Miss Tracy Pella and Joseph Ashenbrenner were united in marriage on Monday morning by Rev. Kleidon in the St. Lawrence Catholic church. After the ceremony a large company of relatives and friends went out to the home of the bride and enjoyed a sumptuous wedding dinner. In the evening there was a wedding dance. The bride is well known in this community, being the daughter of Felix Pella. The newlyweds will farm near here. Congratulations and best wishes are extended.

---