A wedding of interest to Griggs County people took place on Sept. 23, when Chas Burseth, a prominent banker of Cooperstown, was married to Miss Agnetha Hong, a very well known and popular young lady of Hillsboro, at Minneapolis. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock in the evening, in the foyer of Hotel Raddison. Rev. Mr. Preus officiated amidst an antique setting of palms and garden flowers. Before the ceremony, Myrtle Erickson of Cooperstown sang very sweetly, I Love You Truly and a Perfect Day. The maid of honor, Miss Agnes Moody Amor was gowned in shrimp shade of pink accordion plaited crepe de chene, with a double tunic of cream silk, shadow lace and and pale blue rose buds, and girdle of black velvet. The groom was attended by Mr. William Glass of Minneapolis.

The bride entered alone, beautifully gowned in cream satin charmeuse made entrain, with a tunic of Chantilly lace, and wore a veil of silk tulle caught with lillies-of-the-valley and carried a shower bouquet of Killarney roses and lillies-of-the-valley. The strains of Lohengrin wedding march were played by Mrs. Isabella Blixt Parker, and Oh! Promise Me, was played softly during the speaking of the vows.

Following congratulations a wedding dinner was served and covers were placed for eighteen. The decorations were beautifully arranged on a cloth of Cluny lace, with pink shaded candles, pink roses and smilax as decorations. Mr. and Mrs. Burseth will take a trip east and will be at home to their friends at Cooperstown after Nov. 1st.
