

Not way.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Idsvoog returned home last Saturday from their honeymoon of two months, most of which was spent in the principle cities of California. On their journey westward they took the southern route and on the trip homeward the northern route was taken. Most of the places of interest were visited, and they had a very enjoyable trip. For the present they will make their home with the Krogfoss family.

---