

PRETTY WEDDING WAS SOLEMNIZED

Mr. Oscar P. Idsvoog and Miss
Palma Rorvig Married Yesterday.

A pretty June wedding was solemnized yesterday afternoon, June 17, at 2 o'clock, in the United Lutheran church, when Miss Palma Rorvig, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Rorvig, became the bride of Mr. Oscar Idsvoog, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter P. Idsvoog, of Binford.

Rev. T. E. Sweger, of Coopers-town, officiated at the church in the presence of a number of friends, relatives and out of town guests.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with blooming plants and vases of flowers. To the strains of the wedding march rendered by the local orchestra, the bridal couple were preceded up the aisle by Mr. Oscar Rorvig and Miss Alpha Rorvig, and Mr. Paul Rorvig and Miss Clara Rorvig. The service ended, the newly wedded couple repaired to the outer door where they stood and received the congratulations and good wishes of their many friends.

The bride looked beautiful in a gown of white brocaded silk poplin, trimmed with shadow lace, and her full net veil was made in cap effect, confined by a wreath of lillies of the valley, and fell to the hem of her gown. She carried a large bouquet of bride's roses and carnations. The groom wore the conventional black. The two bridesmaids were becomingly attired in white and wore corsage bouquets of roses.

A reception to an additional number of guests followed the ceremony at the bride's home, three miles northeast of town. The wedding feast was served in a spacious tent to about 150 guests, the appointments for which were in yellow and blue. Tall vases of flowers adorned the tables, and at each plate was placed a fern leaf. The color scheme was also carried out in the house.

The gifts showered on the bride were many and consisted of silver-ware, cut glass, hand painted china, and household linen.

Following the supper, the Binford band furnished entertainment for an hour, by rendering several pleasing selections, and at nine o'clock the merry crowd enjoyed an old time barn dance, for which the Binford orchestra of four pieces furnished the music.

The bride is a charming young lady, grown to womanhood in this vicinity, who has wisely and discreetly improved the opportunities of life and is well fitted to be a companion and helpmeet that will make life's journey one of sunshine and happiness.

Mr. Idsvoog needs no introduction to our readers. He has been a Binford resident for many years and is well and favorably known.

The newlyweds left today for a short honeymoon trip to the twin cities when they will return to set up housekeeping on the groom's farm in Romness township.

The Times and others join in extending to these estimable young people much joy, happiness and prosperity.

The out of town guests were Peter Rorvig, and daughters, Tina and Alma of McHenry, E. P. Rorvig and wife of Mose, Wm. Holton and wife of Courtenay, Elmer Mattson and family, Theo. Kittelson and wife, and John Sletten and family, all of Cooperstown, M. Norswing and wife of Finley, Rev. J. M. Jenson of Badger, Iowa, Austin Rorvig and wife of Mose, Otto Knapp and wife of Pekin, the Misses Jeanette and Alma Johnson of Deering.
