

Krogfoss-Bruns.

Mr. Elmer Krogfoss and Miss Alma Bruns stole a march on their friends in this city and went to Cooperstown Tuesday evening, September 15th, where they were quietly married at the home of Rev. O. D. Purinton, who read the marriage service in the presence of Miss Cora Paul, who acted as bridesmaid and Mr. Albin Hanson, as best man.

The groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Krogfoss, and has grown to manhood in Binford. He is employed as one of Uncle Sam's mail carriers, and is a steady and thoroughgoing young man.

The bride is the youngest daughter of J. W. Bruns of Cooperstown, and has made her home on a farm south of town for several years. Miss Bruns is an accomplished young lady with many charming qualities. The young couple are held in high esteem by all who know them.

Mr. and Mrs. Krogfoss have set up housekeeping in the Hanstad residence in north Binford and will be at home to their friends after October first.

The Times joins with others in offering congratulations, and wishes them their full share of prosperity and happiness.
