

The Starr-Jackson Wedding.

One of the prettiest June weddings of the season took place at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Christ Jackson, when their daughter Ida was united in marriage to Albert M. Starr, Wednesday, June 17th.

The ceremony was performed before an improvised altar in the sitting room by Rev. P. A. Thoreson in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The house was effectively decorated for the occasion with flowers and ferns.

Miss Starr presided at the piano and played the bridal music as the bride entered on her father's arm and was given in marriage. The groom with his ushers met the bridal party at the altar. The bride was attended by her sister Charlotte and the groom's sister, Ella. The ushers were Melvin Jackson and Emil Ringlee of Sutton.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of white silk ratine, trimmed in embroidered silk ratine flouncing. She wore a tulle veil in cap effect and carried an arm bouquet of lillies of the valley.

After the ceremony a bounteous three course dinner was served in a large tent to 150 guests.

The young couple has all our heartiest and best wishes for a happy future life. They will be at home to all their friends on their farm 4 miles west of Sutton.—Hannaford Enterprise.
