

Jenson-Wheelock Nuptials.

The marriage of Miss Julie Jenson and Paul C. Wheelock was solemnized Wednesday noon, March the 26, at the home of the bride's parents in Jessie, N. D., in the presence of only relatives and most intimate friends. Rev. Mjaanes of the West Prairie church officiated. The bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Mr. Arthur Olson. The bride entered on the arm of her father. She was gowned in messaline, her veil being caught with white rose buds, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Bessie Jenson, a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and Mr. Arthur Jenson acted as best man. The maid of honor was Nora Jenson, and Mr. Edward Vaderberg, of Barnesville, Minn. was the usher. An elaborate wedding dinner was served, the table being profusely decorated with roses and carnations. Before departing for their future home at Ross, N. D., where Mr. Wheelock has a large farm, the couple were given a grand farewell by their many friends. Congratulations and good wishes are extended by their friends and relatives.
