

Married.

Oregon City, Oregon, Jan. 25, 1912.—At the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Thomas Johnson of Williamette, Ore., the marriage of Miss Lucelia Gordon and Mr. Manley Williams was solemnized Thursday at noon, Rev. S. A. Hayforth of the First Baptist church of Oregon City officiating.

To the strains of Mendelsson's wedding march, the bridal party led by little Jeanette Waldron and Elizabeth Hayforth as flower girls entered, followed by Thomas Johnson, Jr., the groom's man, and Miss Ruth Gordon, bridesmaid.

Miss Gordon and Mr. Williams then took their places beneath an arch of Oregon grape vine, fern, cedar green and white daisies. The bride wore a gown of white crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid was dressed in white mul and carried pink carnations.

The bride and groom received many beautiful presents. About twenty-five guests were present.

Mr. Williams has been a prominent young man of Cooperstown N. D., but whose home is now near Binford, N. Dak.

After the ceremony the guests partook of a wedding breakfast.

A trip was made to Seaside, Oregon, and on their return they will visit relatives in Vancouver, Wash., after which Mr. and Mrs. Williams will go to their home in North Dakota.
