d Early Morning Blaze 2-A gasoline McHenry Tribune: be stove exploded in Peter Adolph's at lunch room this morning at about 6 ıt o'clock, just in the rear of the Ole is Eide pool room, setting fire to the ninterior of the structure and causing d. damage to the amount of several of The flames had hundred dollars. igained entrance to the walls and atis tic of the building, making it diffircult for the firefighters to work with d telling effect. The fire was soon unıt der contact, however, but the intertior of the building and the contents, ł, from one end to the other, are a nmass of ruins, damage for the most at part being caused by smoke and wag ter. e. A small amount of insurance was xd carried by Ole Eide on the poolroom m and fixtures, but the restaurant part, d. conducted by Peter Adolph, is a toat tal loss with no insurance. d-Plans are being made to open up rboth the pool hall and restaurant as k, soon as the insurance adjusters have nt finished their work.