

Will Adrian returned last Saturday from Fargo, where he went to get his Flanders run-about. The car was driven as far as Valley City by one of the company's employes, and from there Mr. Adrian attempted to make the run home. He got as far as Hannaford, when something went wrong, and he was compelled to come up on the train. In company with Expert Johnson, he went back in the afternoon and run the car home.