

---

Albert Alfson and wife and Adolph Aslackson returned last Thursday from their auto trip to Hettinger county. More than 600 miles were covered on the trip. The roads on the other side of Bismarck were in awful condition, making it well nigh impossible to get the car thru. The hub on one of the back wheels was twisted out, but fortunately he was able to get a wheel like the one damaged with only a little delay.