

a
e
ft
es
y
r-
a

E. C. Amadon got a blow on the head yesterday afternoon that put him out of commission for a short time. He was cranking O. G. Arneson's automobile when the crank kicked, striking him squarely on the side of the head. The blow was a bad one, and was very painful.
