

11 E. C. Amadon has been proudly displaying the hides of three bear skins this week. The animals were shot by him and I. D. Allen of Cooperstown, while they were hunting in the Rockies this summer. The hides were fixed up by a taxidermist at Minneapolis. Ernie is as proud as he can be of the hides. He also has several pictures taken on the trip, which go to substantiate his statements regarding the hunt.

U. S. Department of Agriculture, and if the