

Arthur Anderson returned last Saturday from Fargo, where he has been for the past three months, completing his course in pharmacy. Mr. Anderson received an average of .86 in the examination, which is considered very good. He was second in a class of about 40, the highest being 89.