

Saturday until Monday.

A genuine surprise was given Ole O. Anderson, last Sunday, after church, when a large number of his friends gathered together at the beautiful farm home of Ole Alfson and spent the day. Mr. Anderson has been janitor of the West Prairie church for a number of years, and in appreciation of his faithful service in that capacity he was presented with a purse of $43. Dinner was served in the open and a merry time was enjoyed by all.
