

A New Bank for Aneta.

O. M. Brunsvold of Hannaford, N. Dak., together with associates from Iowa, Minnesota and North Dakota, has organized the Citizens' State bank at Aneta.

The people interested in the new bank are associated with several banks in the east, and they will operate the bank at Aneta in connection with their eastern institutions.

They are opening up business at once and will occupy temporary quarters until their building is completed. The city ordinance provides that new business structures must
