

here again.

Carl and Henry Asmus left last Friday with their father for Jordan Springs, where he was to receive treatment in a hospital. His condition was such that the physicians thought he could not withstand an operation, and it was thought best to bring him home again, arriving here Tuesday. The old gentleman is in a critical condition.

The Times has mailed subscription