

A great many from town attended the dance at Henry Asmus' last Saturday evening. The dance was given in the big new barn that has just been completed. Everybody entered into the fun and one of the best times possible was had. Added to that a delightful lunch was served.

The company was