

A Washington program was given in the Behm school house last Thursday evening. The program consisted of several recitations, songs, plays and dialogues, and according to reports, was highly entertaining. Following the rendition of the numbers on the program, a basket social was held. F. C. Boeckman acted as auctioneer and succeeded in bringing the amount of the sales up to 28.05, which will be used for the purpose of buying a clock and books for the school. About 90 people were in attendance.
