

is noted for its good horses.

Courier: The Minneapolis Journal in publishing a telegram stating the disappearance of George Bergen winds up by saying that Bergen's absence cannot be explained by his wife and children. This is getting the news up to the minute for the Journal seeing that Bergen is not married. The latest development in the Bergen case is that he drove to Finley and left the horse in a livery barn and then took the flyer out of Finley going west. Theo. Thompson who has a mortgage on the horse, went over and got the animal. No one knows where George went but "George" certainly did it this time.

In the case of the Finley Farmers