

she could.

Miss Lillie Bergum and two other young ladies had a narrow escape from injury last Friday evening, when the cook car belonging to Julius Thorn of Jessie, in which they were riding, tipped over into the ditch while being moved up to Binford. Something under the car gave way causing the car to overturn. As it was the occupants received a bad shaking up, with no serious results, and were able to resume the trip the next day.