

Miss Signe Berndtson, who was formerly employed in the local post-office, but now of Spokane, Washington, arrived here yesterday. Her visit is somewhat of a farewell visit as she left today for her old home in Sweden. The well wishes of her many friends go with her on her journey across the water.