

at least once a week.

The members of the Bio Real-dalit circle are rehearsing for a mock trial to be put on by them at the opera house in a short time. The trial will be a breach of promise case, and promises to be very interesting. It may be put on Saturday evening of this week, but this day is not certain as Oscar Greenland, who takes the part of the bailiff, is suffering from a bad cold, and may not be able to handle his part.

James Hayward, the
