

A good deal of work has been put on the new ball grounds this week and with the good soaking rain on Tuesday morning the ground was in excellent shape for packing. A heavy surface packer has been at work on the infield and by the time of the game with Kensal Sunday that part of the field will be in excellent condition for fast playing.