

Manager Boeckman has been meeting with excellent success in his canvass for funds for the baseball team. A sufficient sum has been subscribed to warrant a fast team and already a good battery has been communicated with. Binford will be there with bells on.

---