

The married and single men had a bowling contest at the Keifer alleys Monday evening. The rivalry between the teams was quite pronounced, the younger element having the best of the argument so far as noise was concerned, but noise doesn't win bowling contests. When the pins were counted it was found that the married stiff's won with a wide margin. There will be more of these contests put on during the winter.

New Year's is regarded as the