

Jan. 20, up the train going east.

The stockholders of the First State bank held their annual meeting yesterday. No changes were made in the officers or directors. The business at the First State has been very satisfactory in 1912.