

plete without it.

The directors of the First State bank held their annual meeting on Monday. A handsome dividend was declared. A change was made in the officers whereby Arthur Idsvoog, who has been employed as bookkeeper, is promoted to the position of assistant cashier. A heating plant was talked of and it is likely that it will be installed this winter.

... arrived here last