

the exercises in charge.

The business concerns in Binford have been busy this week taking their annual inventory of stock. In this connection it may not be amiss to mention that C. F. Ringlee, of the People's Store, has perhaps done duty along this line longer than any other in this community. Mr. Ringlee had his first experience 30 years ago, and has never missed a year since then.

In order to encourage the plant-
